the malay trilemma by kamaruzzaman bustamam ahmad in this profound and sweeping study the malay trilemma examines how faith identity and modernity converge within the enduring struggle of the malay muslims of pattani a community suspended between memory and modernity nationalism and cosmopolitanism sovereignty and spirituality kamaruzzaman bustamam ahmad one of southeast asia s leading scholars of islam and society invites readers into a multidimensional exploration of pattani s intellectual and civilizational journey within the wider world of islam nusantara drawing from anthropology history theology and political thought this work unpacks the malay trilemma how the people of pattani reconcile their islamic faith their malay identity and the demands of the modern state from the grandeur of langkasuka to the scholarly networks of pasai and aceh and from the moral resistance of haji sulong to the cosmopolitan aspirations of urban muslims today this book traces six centuries of transformation that continue to shape southeast asia s spiritual geography the narrative moves beyond politics to reveal the soul of a civilization a community that despite conquest and marginalization never lost its moral compass through comparative perspectives with aceh and brunei and through deep engagement with concepts such as darussalam shariah and maritime islam the author reconstructs pattani not as a lost kingdom but as a living moral order an enduring expression of islam s synthesis with the sea the mind and the heart of the malay world this book is both an intellectual meditation and a cultural rediscovery a bridge between the past and the future of islamic southeast asia written with scholarly precision and spiritual insight the malay trilemma will captivate readers interested in islamic studies southeast asian history postcolonial thought and the ongoing search for peace through faith and justice malaysia is a prosperous modern islamic nation in which three main ethnic groups malay chinese and indian coexist peacefully while maintaining their unique cultural identities yet this stable society is founded upon a form of affirmative action th eugenic thought and practice swept the world from the late nineteenth to the mid twentieth century in a remarkable transnational phenomenon eugenics informed social and scientific policy across the political spectrum from liberal welfare measures in emerging social democratic states to feminist ambitions for birth control from public health campaigns to totalitarian dreams of the perfectibility of man this book dispels for uninitiated readers the automatic and apparently exclusive link between eugenics and the holocaust it is the first world history of eugenics and an indispensable core text for both teaching and research eugenics has accumulated generations of interest as experts attempted to connect biology human capacity and policy in the past and the present eugenics speaks to questions of race class gender and sex evolution governance nationalism disability and the social implications of science in the current climate in which the human genome project stem cell research and new reproductive technologies have proven so controversial the history of eugenics has much to teach us about the relationship between scientific research technology and human ethical decision making the year 2019 marks singapore s bicentennial milestone since the arrival of sir stamford raffles in singapore in 1819 it was in anticipation of the arrival of the bicentennial that this book beyond bicentennial perspectives on malays was initiated this book is a collection of articles from prominent individuals and academicians that touch not only on the 200 years since the arrival of raffles but goes back much earlier 720 years earlier when sang nila utama first set foot on the island in 1299 this book hopes to heighten the readers sense of history and to reflect upon how singapore has journeyed over the last two centuries witnessing the perseverance trials challenges and efforts of singaporeans and to see how the nation has gone through a transformation from a feudal setting to a cosmopolitan and multi racial society prior to this book majulah 50 years of malay muslim community in singapore was published in 2016 when singapore celebrated sg50 an initiative launched to celebrate the nation s 50 years of independence the book highlighted the progress the contributions and the challenges of the community for the past 50 years since singapore s independence in 1965 both books can be read hand in hand while majulah 50 years of malay muslim community in singapore called on the community to reflect on the past and to look ahead this book beyond bicentennial perspectives on malays calls on readers to reflect and re examine the position and contributions of the malays to singapore s history and its development as singapore commemorates its bicentennial related link s individual experiences though strongly influenced by collective identities are in essence unique ones but in malaysia where ethnic identity is overpoweringly applied to constrict popular thought and rationalise government policies the uniqueness of individuals is ignored and devalued even by the individuals themselves paradoxically the community that has suffered the political ascription of group identity most acutely and most inescapably is the ascribed majority group the malays in this collection of essays edited by ooi kee beng and wan hamidi hamid nine young writers haris zuan wan hamidi hamid zairil khir johari dyana sofya mohd daud altaf deviyati izmil amri syukri shairi raja ahmad iskandar and edry faizal eddy yusof share their individual memories about growing up in malaysia and in some cases debate the racial politics in which they and all malaysians seem inextricably caught though malays in malaysia are constitutionally bound to be muslims many of the writers do not deny that among their forebears are chinese indians and europeans who practised hinduism buddhism christianity and what have you as i read their essays i feel that they write for me as well my origins are varied too for i have always prided myself on having indian spanish and acehnese forebears ariffin omar malaysian senator the malay dilemma revisited is a critical and balanced analysis of malaysia s preferential race policy and its impact on the nation s delicate race dynamics and economy unlike america s affirmative action malaysia s version is far more aggressive and pervasive and has been remarkably successful in creating a sizable and stable bumiputra indigenous group middle class the price tag is significant distortion of freemarket dynamics and consequent inefficiency perversely the policy impairs rather than strengthens bumiputras ability to compete in contrast to quotas and other set aside programs that are the hallmark of the current policy the writer presents an alternative strategy aimed primarily at enhancing bumiputra competitiveness the proposed approach would not negatively impact the economy nor interfere with the freemarket equally important it would not arouse resentment from other malaysians the first objective would be to modernize the nation s archaic educational system to emphasize english mathematics the sciences and technical training secondly the influences of religious and royal institutions must be curtailed and the rates of urbanization and population growth reduced the primary objective is in enhancing competitiveness not on
